BLOOP!

Created and directed by Pep Bou

PEP BOU

BLOOP!

A brand new show for all ages, a trip through the fascinating universe of soap bubbles. After the successfulness of CLINC! with more than 350 performances all over the world, the company starts with BLOOP! a new and fascinating adventure.

Created and directed by Pep Bou, this new show offers a daring proposal of visual poetical theatre full of bubbles, lights, and shadows, as a result of the talent and experimentation of over 40 years of trajectory.

PEP BOU

BLOOP!

Eduardo Telletxea and Isaías Antolín (Agustí Sanllehí in alternance) will perform a duo full of humour and peripetias leading us to a world full of dreams in which the bubbles are back to be the main characters.

PEP BOU

BLOOP! is a show full of contrasts.

Two opposing characters share workspace.

One, clown and alchemist. The other, entrepreneurial business executive.

The stage forms two well-defined spaces where each one of the characters work.

In the course of the show, the antagonistic relationship between them and their trades will evolve, creating comical situations.

Empathy, good humor and optimism will show us that differences and difficulties can also be a path to learning, creativity and understanding.

A show designed to stimulate good attitude, inventiveness and new ideas.
